

Social, Recreational & Community Participation Policy

INCLUSION & QUALITY OF LIFE

1 PURPOSE & PRINCIPLES

To promote meaningful participation in social, recreational, and community-based activities for all residents, enhancing quality of life, wellbeing, and inclusion.

- ✓ Every resident has the right to access and participate in community life
- ✓ Activities are person-centred, culturally appropriate, and led by individual interests
- ✓ Social inclusion reduces isolation and promotes independence

2 ASSESSMENT & PLANNING

- ✓ Activities included in resident's Personal Plan; preferences identified through keyworker discussions and family input
- ✓ Participation goals monitored and reviewed regularly

3 ACTIVITIES

- ✓ Daily leisure: Music, art, games
- ✓ Community trips: Cinema, library, shops, parks
- ✓ Supported employment or volunteering
- ✓ Religious and cultural events
- ✓ Holidays and day trips

4 SUPPORT, RESOURCES & RIGHTS

- ✓ Staff support based on individual risk assessments; ratios determined by needs
- ✓ Vehicles and travel supports maintained for outings; activity budgets available
- ✓ Residents free to refuse participation; no exclusion based on ability or background
- ✓ Engagement logs and feedback guide improvements; outcomes recorded in resident's file
